

I am concerned with the new broadcast service, Low Power FM, that could displace my local K LOVE station. I listen to K LOVE everyday and am uplifted by the messages and music that I hear without commercials. I also financially support K LOVE and don't want to see it go away. I feel very strongly that K LOVE provides a strong influence on the community by providing encouraging music suitable for the entire family without commercial interruptions as well as gospel messages and scriptures for those who may need it the most. I believe that K LOVE is in the public interest by being something for every age to listen to, to be encouraged by and uplifted each day by tuning to. K LOVE provides a listening ear if listeners want to have someone pray for them, the gospel message that God loves us for someone who may be very depressed and needing to know this, or music that speaks to them in a way no speaker ever could. Please don't let the LPFM's take over my local K LOVE station.

Sincerely,
Kim Roten
